4. Presiding Officer Report.

Dr. Henderson gave his report.

a. Dental/Hygiene/Assistant Education Reports.

Dr. Henderson gave his report. The AADB mid-year conference was well attended by Dr. Burke, Dr. Morehead and Dr. Melchor. Dr. Burke reported on the conference. DANB is moving toward ortho. A presentation on mental health was valuable. There are two compacts currently and there are still issues with unanswered questions, many about finances. Dr. Burke recognized Dr. McNeill for bringing the mental health subject to light in the dental community. CRDTS members will present at the next meeting as well as Texas Tech administrators.

CRDTS: Dr. Maldonado reported that the annual meeting is Aug 28, 2029 and the Texas board is invited. Misinformation about the organization continues—the organization is not going away. Ms. Lorie Jones was thanked for being a CRDTS examiner and leader. A strategic plan is underway.

ADEX: Ms. Lorie Jones reported that the AADA, ADEX, and Educators Conference is a multi group conference. The new job task survey will provide an analysis of the current hygienists' tasks in the workplace.

5. Professional Recovery Network Report (PRN).

Ms. Leal attended virtually and the report is uploaded to board materials.
